Why go to the Lakes?

- Apart from the obvious Lakes, there is the charming lakeside town of Bowness on Windermere, home to a huge variety of shops and the museum of arguably the Lake's most famous resident, Beatrix Potter.
- Visit the delightful former home of Beatrix Potter, Hill Top, which enjoys some breathtaking scenery.
- Take a cruise on one of the Lakes (Coniston, Windermere, Ullswater) and see the lakeside from a unique viewpoint.
- Don't forget the little village of Grasmere, a walkers paradise, but perhaps most famous for being the home of William Wordsworth.
