County Wexford contains many towns that are ideal to visit, such as:

- Wexford – a bustling harbour town, featuring the Westgate Heritage Centre, Curracloe beach and Ballinesker beach, which is where Saving Private Ryan was filmed. Just south of Wexford is Johnstown Castle Estate and Gardens.
- Enniscorthy – a lively market town with a fascinating 13th Century Norman Castle
- New Ross – situated south west of Wexford over the quayside is the Dubrody emigrant ship, a full size replica of the original ship that was built in 1845.
- Waterford – just outside of Wexford lies Waterford, which features Waterford Treasures, an interactive museum on Merchants Quay and the famed Waterford Crystal.
